

About Ian Brooks

Ian Brooks joined the Australian International Conservatorium of Music (AICM) in 2011, taking on the responsibility for campus operations at Rozelle with a primary focus on campus and student management. This is a wonderful strategic appointment at a time where we are growing in size; looking at options of multiple site delivery; embracing electronic student management systems; and extending our post-graduate level offerings.

Ian holds a Master of Arts (Griffith University), a Diploma of Music (Australian Institute of Music) and a Certificate IV in TAA (University of New South Wales). He brings to the position a strong commitment to academic standards and rigour which will further set us ahead.

Ian was previously the Registrar at Wesley Institute. Prior to that he held positions as Project Manager at the University of New South Wales (UNSW Global), Project Manager at the National Centre for Language Training (UNSW), Registrar (AIM), and Assistant to the Director (AIM), Teacher and Lecturer in Management and Music (AIM), and Owner of the Penrith and Parramatta Schools of Music.

Ian conveys a reputation of high energy, enthusiasm and capability. He brings to AICM another dimension of professionalism and accountability that will enhance both our operation and profile
