

A REAL GEM AT AICM

The Australian International Conservatorium of Music (AICM) currently based in Harris Park, with a new campus opening in Rozelle/Balmain in mid 2008, is delighted to have Jemma Kim return in her teaching capacity in 2008.

Jemma Kim

Jemma holds a Master of Music, a Master of Education, a Bachelor of Music, a LAGM, an AMusA, and an AAGM.

She started learning the piano at the age of 5 in Korea. At the end of 1982 her family migrated to Australia and she continued studying piano with Professor Kyunghee Lee from 1985 and with Mira Yevtich and Albert Landa.

In 1986, Jemma established the Jemma Kim Piano Studio and commenced work at AICM in 1993. She specializes in children's pedagogy and has a special interest in Chopin and Debussy.

'Jemma represents all that is good about AICM – consistency, commitment and long term application' says Principal of AICM, Dr Greg Whateley. 'Jemma has made a significant contribution to AICM since 1993 and her influence and input is greatly appreciated and valued.'

Jemma currently teaches Piano and Classical Ensemble
