

ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP AND EXPERIENCE – ANOTHER WINNING COMBINATION FOR AICM

The Australian International Conservatorium of Music (AICM) currently based in Harris Park, with a new campus opening in Rozelle/Balmain in mid 2008, is delighted to have Dr Darrell Hines return in his capacity of Chair of Academic Committee, Dean of Studies and Senior Lecturer in Voice in 2008.

Dr Darrell Hines

PhD, MA, MEd, FIMEB, FTCL, FAGM, LMus, LTCL(CMT), ETC, LSDA, LTCL, DipMus

Darrell taught with the NSW Department of Education for a number of years. He then lectured in Music and Education at Sydney Teachers College becoming Head of the Music Department and the Post Graduate Department of Expressive Arts. Following this he transferred to Sydney University and became Senior Lecturer and Head of Music in the Faculty of Education.

Darrell studied Singing as well as Speech and Drama at Sydney Conservatorium and obtained Licentiate Diplomas from the AMEB and Trinity College. His MEd thesis was written on the teaching of Speech and Drama.

Darrell was a foundation staff member of the Australian International Conservatorium of Music (AICM), and is the Director of Speech and Drama for the International Music Examinations Board (IMEB), and a Senior Examiner in Music for that organisation.

He has appeared professionally in opera and musical comedy, on radio and TV broadcasts, and conducts for a number of a Sydney Musical Societies.

Darrell has adjudicated Australia-wide in both Music and Speech and Drama and has examined throughout Taiwan for the International Education Centre. He is currently Chair of the Academic Committee for the AICM in Sydney.

‘To have someone of Darrell’s leadership experience and expertise at AICM is nothing short of sensational’ says AICM Principal, Dr Greg Whateley. ‘In his capacity of Academic Committee Chair his long term contribution to AICM is both appreciated and valued.’

Dr Darrell Hines is a member of the AICM Academic Board, Chair of the Academic Committee, Dean of Studies and Senior Lecturer in Voice in 2008.
